CARRIER RELEASE ARABIA AND INDIAN OCEAN TWIN-CENTRE PACKAGES WITH SAVINGS OF OVER £3,000

Luxury tour operator Carrier have handpicked their top multi-centre trips across both Arabia and Indian Ocean for Q4 departures. With an increasing number of clients choosing to pack more into their holiday, the experts at Carrier recommend pairing together two, or more, destinations to create a truly unforgettable itinerary.

Last year Carrier reported seeing an influx of enquiries for Arabia twin centre trips including city and desert, or city and mountain combos with Muscat generating a lot of interest, and in 2023, this trend has shown no sign of slowing. Responding to demand Carrier created their 'Arabian nights & desert delights' itinerary, specifically designed for those clients that want to experience two sides of Arabia. It begins with spending time in glamorous Dubai, before travelling to the rugged mountains of Oman.

Carrier's Product Manager for Indian Ocean & Arabia, Jenny Basham says "Our twin-centre itineraries are designed for clients that want to have two different experiences during one holiday; perhaps that is spending time in the innovative Dubai combined with the majestic Al Wadi desert or flying off to a more relaxing, sand-under-foot type destination like the Maldives. We know our clients are looking to continue to maximise their time away, so a tailored twin-centre really does offer the best of both worlds."
